

Kraw Law Group and McCarthy, Johnson & Miller Combine Practices

We are happy to announce the combination of Kraw Law Group and McCarthy Johnson & Miller, effective December 31, 2014. The combined practice will be known as Kraw Law Group and will be located at 605 Ellis Street, Suite 200, Mountain View California. It will also maintain an office at 1001 Dove Street in Newport Beach, California.

McCarthy, Johnson & Miller, one of Northern California's premier labor and Taft-Hartley employee benefit practices, has a proud eighty year history of helping working people in legal matters. For over twenty-five years, the Kraw Law Group has provided leading edge legal strategies and innovative cost-effective solutions to the problems faced by employee benefit funds, their participants and their related business interests. The lawyers of the combined practice are recognized leaders nationwide in the field of employee benefits, and are regularly consulted by plan professionals, government agencies and political leaders concerning the challenges facing trust funds. The combined practice will have special expertise in the area of trust fund financing and structure, and will assist both plans and governmental agencies in solving problems in this area.

We are excited and enthusiastic about our new combination and invite you to contact us to discuss it, or to visit our website at www.kraw.com.

George M. Kraw
Lisa Schwantz
Katherine McDonough